Mr. James Meredith
University of Mississippi
Oxford, Mississippi

Dear Mr. Meredith:

We here at Inter American University congratulate you on your recent entrance into the University of Mississippi. We want you to know that we have been following closely the activities and the strife surrounding your registration.

Because we are an inter-american university, we feel all the more strongly the value of what you are doing. You certainly did not ask for all this attention, nor did you or the University of Mississippi ask for all of this turmoil and these deaths. But you and the University are the center of attention of a frightened, fickle world. At this moment you are teaching the world a lesson of patient, persistent understanding in the raging war of tradition versus progress.

From Puerto Rico we send encouragement and support in a struggle that is far from over. We hope that we as a university can stand as good evidence to justify the cause of integration which must not be lost.

Our prayers are with you, and we are confident that you will continue to be an example of whom we can all be proud.

Sincerely,

Student Christian Fellowship
